Dear Judge Engelmayer,

I would like to start off by saying I hope that this letter finds you in the best of health. Especially during these trying uncertain times. I Derard Butler am asking that you allow me to be appointed a new CJA. One that can renew my compassionate release motion. I was previously represented by Jacob Mitchell, who sat second chair to the late Kenneth Paul. It is to my understanding that Mr. Mitchell is not on the board and can't handle the proceedings in regard to what I need at the present time. A lot has changed since my initial compassionate release motion was heard before you and I need assistance with the wording and legality so that it is presented to you adequately. Thanks for your time your honor. I hope to hear back from you soon.

Sincerely,
Derard Butler
